

Cell phone use will make an already uncomfortable situation (flying) insane. I appreciate business users' needs and would accept a separate seating area for cell phone users. The cell phone users should pay for that privilege.